

ISBN: 978-93-95522-37-3
 Binding: Hardbound
 Pages: 136
 Year: 2023
 Price: Rs 995

Caliphates and Islamic International Relations

Kaavya Dhiman

In the intricate tapestry of history, there are threads that weave together moments of triumph and tragedy, of enlightenment and obscurity. This book embarks on a journey through a landscape where faith, power, and ideology converge to shape the course of civilizations. The Book delves into a series of pivotal chapters, each revealing a unique facet of the multifaceted diamond that is Islam's evolution. Our voyage commences with a meticulous dissection of "The Assassination of Caliph Uthman," unearthing layers of historical tragedy that have left an indelible mark on the annals of time. As we progress, the landscape shifts to encompass the rise and fall of the "Islamic State," its tumultuous relationship with political uprisings, and the echoes of disappointment that reverberate through the corridors of political Islam. The relentless pursuit of a caliphate takes center stage as we traverse the enigmatic realm of "The Boko Haram" and their aspirations. As you journey alongside these pages, may you gain a deeper understanding of the complexities, struggles, and triumphs that have defined the path of Islam through time.

Kaavya Dhiman is a luminary whose passion for the Islamic world and its intricate history has shaped her into a remarkable scholar and insightful author. With an unquenchable thirst for knowledge and an unwavering commitment to understanding the depths of the Islamic civilization, she has emerged as a leading voice in the realm of Islamic studies. A consummate explorer of historical narratives, Kaavya's journey through the annals of time has been marked by an insatiable curiosity and an intellectual rigor that few can match. Her pursuit of understanding the intersections of faith, power, and ideology within the Islamic world has taken her on a profound expedition, leading her to both the ivory towers of academia and the heart of historical landscapes. Her academic pursuits have been guided by a fervent dedication to her craft. She embarked on a transformative educational journey by pursuing Islamic studies at a prestigious university in Ethiopia. This immersion in the rich cultural tapestry of the region endowed her with a unique vantage point, allowing her to absorb the nuances of Islam's evolution from a perspective that often remains unexplored. Her studies fostered a deep connection to the people, traditions, and narratives that have shaped Islamic thought and practice for centuries.

Contents

1. The Assassination of Caliph Uthman: Unraveling the Historical Tragedy
2. Islamic State, Uprisings, and the Disappointment with Political Islam
3. The Boko Haram : In Pursuit of a Caliphate
4. Imam's and Caliphate: Moroccan Islamism
5. Enforcement of Islamic Jurisprudence
6. National vs. International Islamist Movements
7. Sustaining the Islamic State: Challenges and Opportunities
8. Quality of Governance of ISIS
9. The Islamic State and the Arab Tribes in Syria
10. What constitutes Islamic "Democracy"?
11. Jihadism After the 'Caliphate'

for orders

Email: info@howacademics.com

Contact: +91 98110264449, 9999953412